DETAILED ACTION

This is the fifth office action for serial number 09/733,691, Universally Positionable Mounting Device, filed on December 7, 2000.

Recapture

Claims 43-46, 50, 51, 58, 59, 61-63 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 251 as being an improper recapture of broadened claimed subject matter surrendered in the application for the patent upon which the present reissue is based. See Pannu v. Storz Instruments Inc., 258 F.3d 1366, 59 USPQ2d 1597 (Fed. Cir. 2001); Hester Industries, Inc. v. Stein, Inc., 142 F.3d 1472, 46 USPQ2d 1641 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Clement, 131 F.3d 1464, 45 USPQ2d 1161 (Fed. Cir. 1997); Ball Corp. v. United States, 729 F.2d 1429, 1436, 221 USPQ 289, 295 (Fed. Cir. 1984). A broadening aspect is present in the reissue, which was not present in the application for patent. The record of the application for the patent shows that the broadening aspect (in the reissue) relates to subject matter that applicant previously surrendered during the prosecution of the application. Accordingly, the narrow scope of the claims in the patent was not an error within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 251, and the broader scope surrendered in the application for the patent cannot be recaptured by the filing of the present reissue application.

Applicant has provided reissue claims, which are broader than the patented claims, and omits limitations that were added/argued during the original prosecution of the patent to overcome an art rejection(s). Therefore, such an omission in a reissue claim is impermissible recapture. For instance, the reason claims 74, 75 and 76 of the original patent were allowed was due to the inclusion of the limitations of claims 40, 45 and 47 of the original prosecution written in independent form outlined in Amendment F. Similarly, the arguments presented on pages 32-34 of Amendment F are what the applicant believes to make claims 38 and 54 allowable in addition to the modifications of claim 38 in Amendment F. The content of at least one of these limitations should be presented in each of the reissue independent claims to avoid recapture.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed May 25, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant's attention is directed to the preliminary amendment dated May 16, 1997. Claim 38 was amended. Claims 70, 75 and 76 were based upon claims 40, 45 and 47 which was objected to and said to be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. Claims 70, 75 and 76 were added including the allowable subject matter of claim 40, 45 and 47, respectively. According to MPEP 1412.02, the limitation omitted in the reissue claim was added in the original application claim(s) for the purpose of making the application claim allowable over a rejection or objection made in the application. Even though applicant made no argument on the record that the limitation was added to obviate the rejection, the nature of the addition to the claim can show that the limitation was added in direct reply to the rejection. This establishes the omitted limitation as relating to subject matter previously surrendered. Surrendered of claimed subject matter cannot be based solely upon as applicant's failure to respond to or failure to challenge an examiner's statement made during the prosecution of an applicant's revision of the application claims or a positive argument/statement by applicant.
